INDICATES A DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE
Eric Scott Flowers, R
www.flowersforsheriff.com

EXPERIENCE
• Has worked for the IRC Sheriff’s Office for 16 years
• Currently serves as major for the bureau of administration at the IRC Sheriff’s office, leads about 200 people in this position
• Bachelor’s degree in business administration from Stetson university, graduate certificate of police leadership and Master of Science in Criminal Justice from UCF currently earning his Ph.D. In public affairs from UCF

PLATFORM
• Emphasis on safety of the community, prosecuting those who commit crimes, opportunity for rehabilitation, strict punishments for violent offenders
• Fiscally conservative, wants to use taxpayer dollars wisely
• Loyalty to employees, treating them like members of his family, but correcting them when necessary
• Lack of emphasis on community policing, transparency, and concern for minority populations

ENDORSEMENTS
• Sheriff Deryl Loar (IRC Sheriff), Erin Grall (FL State Representative), Carole Jean Jordan (IRC Tax Collector), St. Lucie County Sheriff Ken Mascara, Tiffany Justice (IRC School Board), Peter O’Bryan (IRC County Commissioner), Laura Moss (Vero Beach City Council)
• More comprehensive list available on candidate’s website, listed above

Deborah Cooney, NPA (Non-Party Affiliate)
https://sheriffdeb.law.blog

EXPERIENCE
• B. A. in economics from Brown University
• Current President and CEO of Academy of the Stars
• Civil rights advocate

• Small time drug addicts given option of rehabilitation rather than prosecution; members of drug cartels should be prosecuted
• Across-the-board pay raise for all sheriff’s staff
• Accountability within the sheriff’s office
• Employees barred from joining police unions
• Create trust for law enforcement in the community: end false arrests, illegal stop and frisks, entrapment
• Allow for participation of organizations like Black Lives Matter, Me Too, NAACP, etc. in community discourse on law enforcement
• End vaccine mandates, reduce pollution in the environment (sewage, pesticides, tobacco, Pharmaceuticals, etc.)
• Opposed to banning or confiscating guns, opposed to mandated background checks
